The Discipline Section did not track contacts with the public because our offices were closed beginning in March 2020 as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and our staff worked remotely through the end of 2021.

Lawyers' Fund for Client Protection

The Lawyers' Fund is responsible for reimbursing clients or others who have lost money or property due to a lawyer's dishonest conduct. One claim was filed in 2021 and the LFCEP Committee decided to hold the claim in abeyance pending resolution of a related civil lawsuit.

The Fund may also pay for the fees and expenses of Trustee Counsel who are appointed to assist clients of a deceased or unavailable attorney. No fees or expenses were paid in trustee counsel fees in 2021.

BAR BYLAWS, REGULATIONS, AND COURT RULES ACTED ON IN 2021

The Board of Governors:

Amended Article IV, Section 3 and Article VI, Section 1 of the Bylaws of the Alaska Bar Association to have Board of Governor members and officer terms start on November 1 and end on October 31.

The Alaska Supreme Court:

The Supreme Court signed SCO 1966 amending Bar Rule 3 to change the application deadlines for the Alaska Bar Examination; amending Bar Rules 28(g) and 30(e) to change the publication requirements for public notices for discipline and transfers to disability inactive status.

Upon the recommendation of the Alaska Rules of Professional Conduct Standing Committee and the Board of Governors, the Alaska Supreme Court signed SCO 1964, adopting a new Rule of Professional Conduct, prohibiting harassment and invidious discrimination and adding a related definitional term. ARPC 8.4(f) & (g) and ARPC 9.1(k).

ETHICS GUIDANCE

The Board of Governors adopted one formal ethics opinion proposed by the Bar's standing Ethics Committee in 2021. Formal ethics opinions provide the Bar Association's official position on ethics issues.

In addition, Bar Counsel's office responded to 757 requests from lawyers for informal ethics guidance in the course of the year.
