Keynote (1.5 Ethics) Makin' Cake

Dasha Kelly Hamilton

2020-2022 Poet Laureate for the State of Wisconsin. National Rubinger Fellow and a National Laureate Fellow with the American Academy of Poets.

Touring nationally, Makin' Cake is a spoken word performance that slices into American history exploring race, culture and class. The show serves up an experience and a conversation about equity in America. Part history lesson, part social science revelation, "Makin' Cake" is a short story about America's sweet tooth and pathway to salvation.

The Legal Landscape for Alaska's Alcoholic Beverage and Marijuana Licensees: The Top Challenges for 2023. (1.5 General)

Joan Wilson

Executive Director

Alaska Alcohol & Marijuana Control Office

This session will address statutory and regulatory changes impacting these two important Alaska industries, including implementation of the Title 4 Rewrite (licensing of all alcoholic beverage licensees), transitioning marijuana regulation from the fear of federal shutdown to supporting economic development, and to responding to threats to the marijuana industry due to stagnant tax rates, intoxicating hemp products, and impending national legalization. This primer will prepare you to best represent your clients well into 2024.
