Judge Nora Guinn Award Nomination Form

Born and raised in the village of Akiak in the Yukon-Kuskokwim Delta, Judge Guinn was the first Alaska Native judge in the state and one of the first women judges. Judge Guinn was a magistrate in Bethel before being appointed by Governor Hickel as a district court judge. She often conducted court proceedings in the Yupik language to foster better understanding of legal principles, and is credited with playing a major role in extending judicial services to Southwest Alaska and other rural areas of the state. She was elected to the Bethel City Council and served on the boards of many organizations, including Calista Corporation, the Lower Kuskokwim School District, Orutsararmuit Native Council, Bethel Social Services, and Alaska Legal Services Corporation.
