

Board of Governors awards

The Distinguished Service award honors an attorney for outstanding service to the membership of the Alaska Bar Association.

The Professionalism award recognizes an attorney who exemplifies the attributes of the true professional, whose conduct is always consistent with the highest standards of practice, and who displays appropriate courtesy and respect for clients and other attorneys. The Professionalism award has traditionally been presented to an attorney in the judicial district where the convention is being held.

The Layperson Service Award honors a public member for distinguished service to the membership of the Alaska Bar Association.

The Robert K. Hickerson Public Service Award recognizes lifetime achievement for outstanding dedication and service in the State of Alaska in the provision of pro bono legal services and/or legal services to low income and/or indigent persons.
