I am pleased to submit my candidacy for the Board of Directors of the Alaska Legal Services Corporation. I have dedicated my career to expanding access to justice and serving individuals and communities facing economic challenges, and I would be honored to bring that commitment to your organization.

As Federal Public Defender for the District of Alaska, I lead an organization focused on protecting constitutional rights, ensuring high-quality legal representation, and advocating for fairness within the justice system. This work has given me extensive experience in governance, strategic leadership, public service, and navigating complex legal and ethical issues. I know that strong legal services organizations are essential to a fair and functioning society.

In addition to my professional experience, I serve on the board of directors at Bean's Café, where I have seen firsthand how legal issues are often intertwined with food insecurity, housing instability, poverty, and other barriers facing vulnerable individuals and families.

I interned at the Legal Aid Society in Albuquerque, New Mexico, during law school, and that experience cemented my commitment to public service. I am interested in joining the board of directors because I believe deeply in the mission of providing accessible, high quality legal services to those who might otherwise go without help.

Sincerely,

Jamie McGrady
Federal Defender
