RE: Board of Governors Vacancy, 4th Judicial District

To Whom It May Concern:

I have served on the Alaska Bar Association's Board of Governors for the last ten months, filling in the vacancy created when Diana Wildland left the state. It has been a fulfilling experience that I hope to continue. I was humbled and grateful when Ms. Wildland nominated me to take her spot. Hers were very big shoes to fill.

The Board of Governors helps to shape and define the legal profession in Alaska. The Board also advocates for and defends Alaskan lawyers and, when necessary, disciplines them. Those are heavy responsibilities which I will continue to take very seriously if I retain my seat.

I have served on the boards of a variety of other organizations. I understand how to reach a consensus without sacrificing my own beliefs while also maintaining a collegial and respectful atmosphere. I hope that any opposing counsel I have faced will say that I am always a zealous advocate in the courtroom but also always courteous and respectful as well. That is because I try not take the passion of any issue beyond that issue. I will fight for what I believe, but I understand the value of others' opinions and realize I am human and fallible.

I hope the 4th Judicial District will support my remaining on the Alaska Bar Association's Board of Governors.

Sincerely,
