

RESOLUTION OF THE
BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE ALASKA BAR ASSOCIATION
(Regarding Code of Judicial Ethics for the United States Supreme Court)

The Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association, at a meeting duly called and held on September 20, 2023, does hereby adopt the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, the American Bar Association House of Delegates approved Resolution 400 which urges the Supreme Court to adopt a code of judicial ethics binding on its justices that is comparable to the code of conduct for other U.S. judges adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States; and

WHEREAS, Resolution 400 also urges federal, state, local, and territorial bar associations to adopt their own resolutions urging the Supreme Court of the United States to adopt a code of judicial ethics binding on justices of the Supreme Court; and

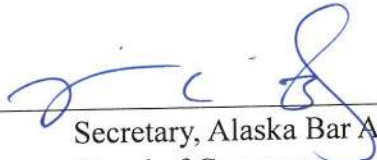

WHEREAS, the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association have reviewed the matter, including the report accompanying Resolution 400, and agrees that the Supreme Court should adopt a code of judicial ethics binding on its justices that is comparable to the code of conduct for other U.S. judges adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, the Board of Governors of the Alaska Bar Association urges the Supreme Court of the United States to adopt a code of judicial ethics binding on justices of the Supreme Court of the United States that is comparable to the Code of Conduct for United States Judges adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States; and

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, these resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Board duly called and held on September 20, 2023.
